Pat was born on November 25, 1931 in Snipe Lake, Saskatchewan to Thomas and Mary Antoniow. Her life interests and education as an RNA took her to Port Arthur, Ontario where she met her future husband, Bill with whom she shared 46 years of happy married life. It was here in Port Arthur (Thunder Bay) where they enjoyed family life, church, lifelong friends, excursions to the cottage, extensive travel vacations and entertaining. Pat worked for 33 years at the Lakehead Psychiatric Hospital as a staff nurse, supervisor and counselor. In her retirement, she enjoyed living in her dream home in Oakbank, Manitoba and spending the winter months at her winter home in Florida. Pat also enjoyed entertaining, cooking, sewing, knitting, crocheting, gardening, decorating, and especially spending leisure time with and being part of her grandchildren's lives. Pat was a gracious and sincere person. Her wisdom, caring, generosity, sense of humour and good nature made her good company, as she encouraged your potential and extended herself to make you welcome to be part of the family.
