Our sincere condolences to you on the loss of your Dad. He loved his children and grandchildren dearly. Nick was a kind man and a great storyteller. I have many fond memories of Nick and Anne's many kindnesses to me when I was teaching near their place. I spent countless weekends with them surrounded by their love warmth and care!!! Back in my childhood I had summer visits with Uncle Nick and Aunty Ann. Uncle welcomed me to accompany him with farm chores. He laughed and admired me for my eagerness. When Aunty Ann and Uncle Nick had a dance to attend they welcomed me to come. But first Uncle Nick let me put his hair into curlers. We all laughed and love filled the room. When I combed it out later he looked in my eyesto be a handsome blond version of Elvis Presley and he kept that look throughout the night. This love and affirmation had a big impact on me. I enjoyed my career as a hairdresser and during Uncle Nick's latter years I was committed to returning happiness and love to Uncle Nick.

When I was a child I loved summer visits with uncle Nick. He welcomed my efforts to do farm chores with him. I didn't accomplish much but I did make him laugh alot. If there was a dance in town Aunty and Uncle were egar to take me along. We all shared in laughter when Uncle Nick let me put curlers in his hair. Later when I combed his hair out I saw him as a handsome blond version of Elvis Presley. He laughed and wore my hairdo to the dance. For me as a young child this kind of happy loving memory had an impact. I loved my career as a hairdresser and till the end of Uncle Nick's life I kept in touch and tried to bring brightness and love back to him. Thank you Uncle Nick. Dianna Deyholos
